The Maricopa County Home Shows supports local interior design students with $11,500 in scholarship money!!

Two months ago, the Home Show sent out a call to all local design colleges to have their students send entries to compete in the once a year Maricopa County Home Shows Student Interior Design Competition. Seven entries were accepted based on their resume, sketch of their room, and paragraph description.

On Wednesday, April 27, these seven Students will have 48 hours to build and design their room according to their sketch and description. Qualified interior design judges will rank their favorites based on design plan, sketch presentation, implementation in relation to the original sketch, functional space, use of materials, furnishing, color and the students overall creativity and originality. All students receive prize money, and the winning student receives a substantial $5,000.00. All said, the Home Show awards over $11,500.00 in prize money to help these students further their career in the design field.
